MOST MATERIAL FINDING

Climate-neutrality or offsetting claim

High

Source: https://www.puratos.com

Puratos marks major sustainability milestone with carbon neutral operations.

WHY IT MATTERS

The wording may imply complete neutrality without making the emissions boundary, residual emissions and role of offsets clear.

EVIDENCE GAP

Scope, baseline, methodology, residual emissions, offset use and reporting period.

RECOMMENDED WORDING Separate verified emissions reductions from any offsetting and disclose scopes, baseline, methodology, residual emissions, offset use and progress.

ADDITIONAL PRIORITY CLAIMS

Sustainability label / certification claim

High

Cacao-Trace, our own certified sustainable cocoa sourcing program.

WHY IT MATTERS

The wording may be understood as an independent sustainability certification.

EVIDENCE GAP

Scheme owner, criteria, independent verifier, audit basis, scope and validity period.

RECOMMENDED WORDING Name the scheme owner, criteria, independent verification basis, audited scope and validity period, or clarify that it is a company programme rather than an independent certification.

Generic environmental claim

High

We support you in creating nutritious and more sustainable breads.

WHY IT MATTERS

The comparative benefit and environmental attribute are not clear from the wording alone.

EVIDENCE GAP

Specific attribute, comparison baseline, method, product scope, period and limitations.

RECOMMENDED WORDING Specify the exact environmental attribute, product scope, comparison baseline, method, evidence, reporting period and limitations.

PRIORITY ACTIONS

1	Review client-facing green claims Review the exact climate, certification and broad environmental wording used on webpages, campaigns and product communications.
2	Close substantiation gaps Create a claim-specific evidence file covering scope, method, baseline, reporting period, limitations, verification status and approval owner.
3	Implement claim governance Require sustainability, legal, compliance and marketing approval before high-risk claims or sustainability labels are published.

External signals and coverage

No relevant external public-source signal was retained in this scan.
